

Registration

Like last year, an Online Registration System has been developed to make the process of registration easier.

To register online, please visit the ACCA website www.accaweb.com.au and select Register Now under ACCA Conference 2010 on the homepage. Once redirected to the online registration please follow the prompts to register. Towards the end of the registration process you will be asked for payment. You can either pay by credit card online or you can either pay by cheque / direct deposit. If you wish to pay by credit card, please note that the website is completely secure.

If you would like to register using the registration form, please visit the website and click Download under the ACCA Conference 2010 page.

Registration and accommodation bookings cannot be accepted without full payment

Please note that the Cemetery Tour is optional this year and is therefore not included in Full Registration.

You will need to select this as an extra function online or as a partial registration on the form..
